

Are you interested in working in education?

Would you like to learn more about employment opportunities in schools and corporate offices?

Do you know how to register and apply for opportunities?

Join our recruitment and information session for Aboriginal Education Worker (AEW) award and Ancillary roles

AEW roles include:

- School based: ACEO, ASETO, SSO, HPI (mentor/tutor)
- Education office/corporate based: ASEO, ACETL, Workabout Centre Coordinator

Ancillary roles include:

- School based: SSO, ECW, HPI

When and where:

Thursday 4th April
9.30am – 10.30am
@ Mark Oliphant College
99 Douglas Drive, Munno Para

This session will cover:

- Roles and responsibilities in schools
- Mandatory employment requirements
- How to apply on the Employable Ancillary Register (EAR)

Who should attend:

- Aboriginal people interested in working in schools, or in the Department for Education.
- Parents/caregivers interested in applying for ACEO or SSO work in schools.
- Recent school leavers and current year 12 students who are considering a pathway in education or will be seeking casual/part time employment while studying at Uni or Tafe.

To register your interest, please email natasha.chisholm@sa.gov.au

Please be aware – there is no guaranteed employment from this session.

