

North Ingle School & Preschool
is celebrating

Neurodiversity Day

*We know that every brain works in its own amazing way!
Neurodiversity Day is a celebration of the different ways
we think, learn, and experience the world.*

Friday Week 10
4th April 2025

- Classroom activities about neurodiversity
 - Playtime prompts in the yard
- Sensory exploration stations in the hall

Parents and families are welcome to visit our sensory exploration stations in the hall from 2:40pm.
